A black smartphone is shown with a teal-colored app interface. At the top, there's a status bar with a Wi-Fi icon, signal strength bars, a battery icon, and the time 11:23. Below the status bar is a teal header with a white hamburger menu icon on the left and the title "Reporting Steps" in white. A white horizontal line is below the title. The main content area is a dark teal rectangle with rounded corners. Inside this rectangle, the text "Step 1" is at the top, followed by "Get to a safe place" in a larger font. To the right of this text is a white circular arrow icon pointing right. A vertical teal bar is on the right side of the main content area.

Reporting Steps

Step 1

Get to a safe place

Scrolling to right will include following next steps

2. Call PCMO/Duty Officer (hover over and type "All victims of sexual assault are entitled to a medical examination with the PCMO present. In some cases, forensic exams may be helpful and required to document and collect evidence. The exams are referred to as a Sexual Assault Forensic Examination or SAFE")

3. If there are serious injuries, seek immediate treatment

4. Do not go to the local police alone (hover over or click and type the below:

Typically begins with a complaint to local authorities;

Police may take statements, collect evidence, attempt to establish identity of the offender, develop working theory;

Police will arrest suspect, conduct identification of suspect;

Police will present evidence and investigative report to Prosecutor;

-Prosecutor will review evidence and charge suspect if possible")

5. Protect physical evidence

6. Tell someone
